Zoom Link

Welcome and thank you for worshipping together for this “hybrid” service where some will be in the sanctuary at 67 Newbury Street, and some in the sanctuary of places far and near. For those joining online, we begin on Zoom at the above link. Please keep your mic muted during the service.

The full service is recorded and later posted online.

You are invited to rise in body or spirit.*

Prelude

True Colors

as sung by Cyndi Lauper

Welcome & Announcements

One: Peace be with you.

Many: And also with you.

* Call to Worship

adapted from Kimi Floyd Reisch

One: Each of us is created with worth, imbued with dignity.

Many: We are the representation of God’s love in the world.

One: We are diverse in our experiences, vast in our manifestation of how love looks.

Many: Our families are all different, but each represents and honors the many ways that God’s people live and love.

One: Our lives are enriched when LGBTQIA+SGL people are welcomed and affirmed in our churches and communities.

Many: We all suffer when any queer person is oppressed, excluded, or shamed.

One: When justice is denied to any of us, justice is denied to all of us.

Many: Until we are all free, none of us are free.

One: As we seek to follow the Liberating Christ, may we work to build a world where all people are affirmed with love.

Many: Our sexual and gender diversity come as gifts from our Creator and bring joy in our lives. And in God’s name, we gather and go out to share these blessings with the world.

A Celebratory Litany for Pride Sunday

One:        Resplendent God of the Rainbow,

Many:      For this we celebrate and give thanks.

Prayer for Grounding in God's Grace

Rev. Derek Terry (UCC, ONA)

Many:      Loving God, sometimes we have dishonored ourselves and others in our longing to fit in and to be accepted. At times we have rejected the individuality of others. Sometimes we have allowed the pressure to be liked cause us to bully ourselves and others. Occasionally we have been silent when we have witnessed people being dishonored because of their truth. Please change our hearts and help us to love our own humanity and the awesomeness of other humans. Please help us forgive ourselves for the harsh things that we have said and thought about ourselves and others. Each person is a unique and beautiful expression of God's divine light and love. We confess that we forget this sometimes and pray that you help us to do better.

One:        In the gift of silent prayer, let us now open ourselves to God...

Listening to God in Silent Prayer

Assurance of God's Grace

One:        Beloved, God forgives us of all of our wrongdoings – those we committed consciously and unconsciously. Let us forgive others as God freely forgives us, and let's celebrate together:

Many:      In Jesus Christ we are set free and made whole. Alleluia, Amen!

* Sung Response: PH (blue) 398 (chorus)

Sweet, Sweet Spirit (refrain)

Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet heavenly Dove, stay right here with us, filling us with your love;
And for these blessings we lift our hearts in praise,
Without a doubt we'll know that we have been revived when we shall leave this place.

Readings from Scripture

Hebrew Bible Reading: Daniel 3:16-28

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, ‘O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to present a defense to you in this matter. If our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the furnace of blazing fire and out of your hand, O king, let him deliver us. But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods and we will not worship the golden statue that you have set up.’ Then Nebuchadnezzar was so filled with rage against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego that his face was distorted. He ordered the furnace to be heated up seven times more than was customary, and ordered some of the strongest guards in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and to throw them into the furnace of blazing fire. So the men were bound, still wearing their tunics, their trousers, their hats, and their other garments, and they were thrown into the furnace of blazing fire. Because the king’s command was urgent and the furnace was so overheated, the raging flames killed the men who lifted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. But the three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down, bound, into the furnace of blazing fire.

Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and rose up quickly. He said to his counsellors, ‘Was it not three men that we threw bound into the fire?’ They answered the king, ‘True, O king.’ He replied, ‘But I see four men unbound, walking in the middle of the fire, and they are not hurt; and the fourth has the appearance of a god.’ Nebuchadnezzar then approached the door of the furnace of blazing fire and said, ‘Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out! Come here!’ So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out from the fire. And the satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king’s counsellors gathered together and saw that the fire had not had any power over the bodies of those men; the hair of their heads was not singed, their tunics were not harmed, and not even the smell of fire came from them.

Nebuchadnezzar said, ‘Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel and delivered his servants who trusted in him. They disobeyed the king’s command and yielded up their bodies rather than serve and worship any god except their own God.’

Gospel Lesson: Matthew 9:9-13, 18-26

As Jesus was walking along, he saw someone called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, “Follow me.” And Matthew got up and followed Jesus.

And as Jesus sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?” But when he heard this, he said, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’ For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.”

While Jesus was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, “My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.” And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she said to herself, “If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.” Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.” And instantly the woman was made well. When Jesus came to the leader’s house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, “Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.” And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread throughout that district.

One: God is still speaking, the word of God,

Many: Thanks be to God.

Sermon

“Smoke Signals”

The Sacred embraces us in our multiplicity.

In our desires, our longings, our many practices of kinship and community.

Our love is declared holy – platonic and erotic, queer and collective.

As we each wish to know and be known – for who we've been, who we are, and who we are becoming, we honor the simple fact that identities change, flow, transition.

We delight in authentic self-expression, quickly shifting or slowly emerging strange or familiar.

We remember the incarnation is an eternally unfolding event.

We look and feel and listen all around us – indeed, God is here.

Let us not cower. Let us not turn on each other.

Let us protect one another, divesting from all white supremacy, misogyny, classism, ableism, ageism, and nonbinary erasure among us.

May we each examine – in what ways do we contribute to the struggles of our own trans siblings?

Let us bind our lives, our resources, our spirits together.

May we live into the truth that every loss of one is a loss to us all.

Let all who desire to be in solidarity come.

Let the memories of our queer ancestors sustain us.

Let us remember that all forces of dominance work against our thriving.

No appealing to structures of privilege can save us.

We will not be legislated out of existence.

We are truly ourselves when we tell the truth about our stories, our bodies, our communities.

We are truly ourselves when we fight for each other.

We are truly ourselves when we resist destructive policies, practices, theologies, and authorities.

Today.

In the days ahead.

In struggle. In joy. In death. In transition. In collective rising.

We are truly ourselves. This will always be so.

Worship at Church of the Covenant is the heart and soul of our life together as a community of faith. Since 1932 we have been a federated church, maintaining membership in the United Church of Christ and the Presbyterian Church (USA) and welcoming pilgrims and inquirers from all traditions to our life and work. Through our prayer and praise, in our concerns and celebrations, by word and sacrament, art and silence, we seek empowerment, together and individually, as a covenant people, for the work of Christ.

Jesus taught that the Spirit invites all people, including society's marginalized, to enjoy seats at God's table. This congregation seeks to demonstrate that vision by welcoming individuals and families of all races, gender identities, ages, physical/mental abilities, and sexual orientation. We rejoice in the presence of children among us, and we strive to include them in our ministry. We maintain ties of faith with the Church of the Poor in the community of the Sweet Name of Jesus, in Northwestern Nicaragua.

We believe God's blessings are found in marriage equality for all. Thus, we joyfully welcome the opportunity afforded us by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the United Church of Christ and the Presbyterian Church USA to join couples of all sexual orientations and gender identities in fully legal and holy marriage.

In our worship we use language and imagery that reflect the wonderful diversity of the image of God in humanity and all of creation; that transcend the exclusive language of the church's past. And as stewards, we seek to live into the Spirit's blessing as we move in solidarity on this shared and sacred, common home we call earth. We invite you to join us in the journey toward God's justice and peace for all of Boston and beyond!
