* Call To Worship

Many: Holy One, who we so often don't recognize in our come into our midst and make your presence known!

Renew our strength,
refresh our imaginations,
retool our weary efforts
to carry your Peace into this altered world.

Amaze us with your power to make all things new
And let us face our world with creativity and hope.
This is the day that our God has made,
let us rejoice and be glad in it!

*Opening Hymn: NCH 440

In Christ There is No East or West

Lighting of the Christ Light

In Christ there is no East or West
In him no South or North,
But one great fellowship of love
Throughout the whole wide earth.

In Christ shall true hearts everywhere
Their high communion find;
His service is the golden cord
Close binding humankind.

Join hands, disciples of the faith
What-e'er your race may be.
All children of the living God
Are surely kin to me.

In Christ now meet both east and west,
In Him meet south and north;
All Christly souls are one in Him
Throughout the whole wide earth.

Prayer for Grounding in God's Grace

Many: God, you desire freedom for all. We confess that sometimes we are bound – by unsettling events around us, by fears lurking within us. We pray to be liberated from all that hinders us from being your salt and light in the world. And in your grace, give to us, this nation, and our world the balm of your healing presence. Your presence is light for our world. May we bask in it now...

One: Let us now open ourselves to God in silent prayer...

Listening to God in Silent Prayer

Assurance of God's Grace

(from the Nicaraguan Misa Campesina)

One: You are the God of the poor, the human and simple. You struggle in the countryside and town. You line up in the work camps to get your daily wage. That is why we can talk with You. You are the worker God, the worker Christ and we celebrate together:

Many: In Jesus Christ we are set free and made whole.
Alleluia! Amen.

Sung Response:

Sweet, Sweet Spirit (refrain)

Sweet Holy Spirit, sweet heavenly Dove, stay right here with us, filling us with your love;
And for these blessings we lift our hearts in praise,
Without a doubt we'll know that we have been revived when we shall leave this place.

Introduction to Reflection on the Word

Scripture Reading: Psalm 116

I love the Lord

 who has heard the voice of my supplication, who has listened to me whenever I called.

The cords of death entangled me;
 the grip of the grave took hold of me;
I came to grief and sorrow.

Then I called upon the name of the Beloved:
 “O God, I pray you, save my life.”

Gracious is the Lord and righteous;
 our God is full of compassion.

The Holy One watches over the innocent;
 I was brought very low, and our God helped me.

Turn again to your rest, O my soul,
 for the Lord has treated you well.

For you, O God, have rescued my life from death,
 my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.

I will walk in the presence of our God
 in the land of the living.

I believed, even when I said,
 “I have been brought very low.”

In my distress I said,
 “No one can be trusted.”

How shall I repay you, O God,
 for all the good things you have done for me?

I will lift up the cup of salvation and call upon your name.

I will fulfill my vows to the Lord
 in the presence of all the people.

Precious in your sight, O God is the death of your servants.

O Holy One, I am your servant;
 I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
 you have freed me from my bonds.

I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and call upon the name of the Lord.

I will fulfill my vows to God
 in the presence of all the people of God.
In the courts of the house of the Lord,
 in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.
Hallelujah!

One: God is still speaking, the word of God,
Many: Thanks be to God.

Need so much protection?
As we tremble for our country,
as we know that God is just.(x2)

ustedes dirán conmigo:

English Translation: No, It's Not Enough to Pray

Chorus: No, it's not enough to pray.
Many things are needed to achieve peace.

1) There won't be peace in the world
while one exploits another and while inequality exists.

2) Por qué nos, el gente blanco
Necesitamos tanta protección?
Mientras temblamos por nuestro país,
Como sabemos que Dios es justo.

3) When the people rise up and change everything,
You will say to me: “It wasn't enough to pray.”

COVER ART: Original art taken from the album cover of “No Esta En Las Nubes”, a project to collect songs connected to the Delegate of the Word movement out of the Somotillo region in Nicaragua, as collated by the efforts and passions of late COTC member, visionary, and Nica Companion, Newell Hendricks (depicted with white beard in artwork) and Entre Culturas (www.betweencultures.org).

NOTE FOR TODAY'S SERVICE: Today's service incorporates words, music and worship styles from Covenant's sister community in Dulce Nombre de Jesús, Nicaragua. Dulce Nombre is a Base Christian Community influenced by the teachings of liberation theology.

Liberation theology interprets the teachings of Jesus in relation to liberation from unjust economic, political, or social conditions. It may be described as “an interpretation of Christian faith through the suffering of the poor, their struggle and hope, and a critique of society and Christianity through the eyes of the poor.” (Phillip Berryman)

One dramatic aspect of liberation theology is the social organization of church practice through the model of Christian base communities. The model emphasizes a “bottom-up” movement, w/ Biblical interpretation & liturgical practice designed by lay practitioners, rather than by orthodox Church hierarchy.

In much of Nicaragua, Christian base communities are seldom embraced by the official Catholic church. Nor is Liberation Theology frequently taught or practiced by religious groups in the United States. Religious organizations and leaders and ecumenical movements who share the calling to Liberation Theology come from poor communities and from those seeking to learn through the eyes of the poor. In this practice, communities choose leaders who learn from those trained and committed to Liberation Theology to lead worship services, “Celebrations of the Word.”

In today’s service at Covenant, we seek to lead a “Celebration of the Word,” as many of us have learned from our sister hermanamiento with the Christian base community of Dulce Nombre de Jesús. This service is a reflection of some of the music, worship styles, and theology of Dulce Nombre mixed with the traditions of Church of the Covenant. We trust that participating in this Celebration together will help us imagine our faith as viewed “through the eyes of the poor.”

PEACE BE WITH YOU IN THESE DAYS: We are delighted to welcome you to our community of faith! As we all do our part to love our neighbor as ourselves to help “flatten the curve” of the coronavirus/COVID-19, our building remains closed; all meetings and events that are offered, including worship, have shifted to an online or conference call format. We are grateful for the technology that allows the majority of us to gather together online, and we pray and work for the day the energy used to connect us becomes less dependent on dangerous, unjust, fossil fuels. And in faith and through God’s ceaseless, amazing grace—as we practice “physical distancing” we also practice “spiritual nearing” to each other and the Sweet Holy Spirit. The announcements that follow reflect the ongoing abundant life that is Church of the Covenant.

UPCOMING WORSHIP ON SUNDAYS: To further adhere to our state's excellent social distancing policy to help flatten this curve, we have decided to suspend live-streaming from the sanctuary from Easter onwards, until further notice. In place of this, we will hold live-worship on Zoom at 10:30am.

If you are newer to using Zoom, please log in early so we can explain some technical questions in order to start our worship close to 10:30.

- Sunday, June 21 Rev. Adam preaching, Communion, Recognition of Christian Education leaders
- Sunday, June 28, Rev. Rob preaching, Special Offering for Racial Justice

Some suggestions to aid in your worship for you to consider:

1. Printing the bulletin out in advance so you have it during worship
2. Pulling the bulletin up on a second device/phone/screen
3. Pulling both the bulletin up and Zoom, and switch between them as needed. The liturgy, songs, and scripture are the important times to have this bulletin visible if possible.
4. And if none of these options work for you, no worries—just following the link will be fine – you will be able to worship fully.

CONCERT TODAY 2PM: Our own Austin Burns will be performing songs from his new album Songs of the Sea and his previous album An Evening in Naples for this special livestream acoustic concert. It will be held today, Sunday June 14th at 2:00 and can be viewed on Youtube by using this link:

Songs of the Sea consists of his own arrangements of traditional sea shanties, many of which were popular in New Bedford (a former whaling city) where Austin now lives. If you would like to listen to the album you can also check out this link!

UCC DELEGATES NEEDED: Our Association requests two UCC members represent Covenant at FOUR upcoming Ecclesiastical Councils: June 18th, 23rd, 25th, and 29th, all at 7:00 PM on Zoom. You do not need to be at all the dates, just one is fine! This is a time where a member in discernment for authorized ministry presents to association churches about their call and theology and delegates from each church are invited to listen and ask questions of the candidate. The delegates then vote on approving the candidate for ordination pending call. Registration is required. Contact Rev. Adam with questions or if you can represent our congregation. If you have ever been to an ecclesiastical council before you know they are fascinating gatherings!

CHILDREN'S AND YOUTH PROGRAMMING: Each Sunday beginning at 9:45 our children and youth gather to sing, share news with each other, and pray together. At 10:00 we split into our Godly Play and Youth classes. If you need the Zoom link, email Rev. Adam.

20s-30s-40s GROUP AT COVENANT: We have an active young adult group that meets regularly to create community, even while we can't be together physically. Join us on Monday evenings at 7:30 PM for a weekly time to pray and connect via conference call at (712) 432 - 0220, Access Code 2667480#. If you'd like to be added to our email list, contact one of our group leaders: Kathryn Barry, Melissa Morgan, Tom Reid, or Adam youngadults@cotbos.org.

CONTINUED GIVING: Even in face of important, life-giving changes, our COTC ministry remains moving full steam ahead. Our staff and pastors continue to be hard at work. Our building continues to be faithfully stewarded. Our deacons and pastors continue to carry out vital pastoral care in these days. Therefore, your continued generosity and giving to help support the work of our church community is even more valued in these challenging days. And we are deeply grateful for your tangible signs of generosity. Here are a few ways you can continue to financially support the church and its ministries:

1. Directly on our website: <http://www.cotbos.org/give.html>
2. Download free app: GIVEPLUS+ (GIVE+ by Vanco Services, LLC) in the App Store, Google Play, or at <https://giveplus.vancopayments.com>. Then, type in our zip code 02116 to find Church of the Covenant. Both online options allow you to make a one-time or a recurring gift.
3. If you are uncomfortable with online giving, yes, you can still mail checks!

Worship at Church of the Covenant is the heart and soul of our life together as a community of faith. Since 1932 we have been a federated church, maintaining membership in the United Church of Christ and the Presbyterian Church (USA) and welcoming pilgrims and inquirers from all traditions to our life and work. Through our prayers and praise, in our concerns and celebrations, by word and sacrament, art and silence, we seek empowerment, together and individually, as a covenant people, for the work of Christ.

Jesus taught that the Spirit invites all people, including society's outcasts, to enjoy seats at God's table. This congregation seeks to demonstrate that vision by welcoming individuals and families without regard to race, gender, age, physical/mental condition, or sexual orientation. We rejoice in the presence of children among us, and we strive to include them in our ministry. And we maintain ties of faith with the Church of the Poor in the community of the Sweet Name of Jesus, in Northwestern Nicaragua.

We believe God's blessings are found in marriage equality for all. Thus, we joyfully welcome the opportunity afforded us by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the United Church of Christ and the Presbyterian Church USA to join couples of all sexual orientations in fully legal and holy marriage.

In our worship we use language and imagery that reflect the wonderful diversity of the image of God in humanity and all creation; that transcend the exclusive language of the church's past. We invite you to join us in the journey toward God's justice and peace for all people in this neighborhood, this city, and the world.
